DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 77-164, drawn to a cosmetic composition.

Group II, claims 165-173, drawn to a multi-compartment kit.

Group III, claim 174, drawn to a cosmetic process.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature among the inventions is the cosmetic composition, which is anticipated by Anton et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,153,206; Issued Nov. 28, 2000; #35 on the IDS submitted by applicant dated 7/19/2006). Specifically, Anton et al. reads on a number of the claims of the instant application including the composition of claim 77 and many of the limitations that depend therefrom. For example, the cosmetic composition (Group I) of instant claims 77-79 is disclosed in Anton et al. (column 1, lines 60-67; column 2, lines 51-62; column 3, lines 25-55; and claims 1-7). Claims 82-85 and 108 of the instant application are also anticipated by Anton et al. (column 2, lines 8-23; column 3, lines 25-

55; and column 4, line 62 to column 5, line 18). Furthermore, Anton et al. reads on the instant cosmetic process (Group III) (column 2, lines 26-28). These examples do not represent an exhaustive comparison with Anton et al., but are intended to show that a number of claimed elements of the instant application are anticipated in the prior art. Because these elements cannot be considered novel, they do not share a common special technical feature and are subject to restriction.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

For Group I, the species are as follows:

- Monomer structure (claims 110, 111, 113, 114, 117, 121, 122, 127-129, 135, 140, 141, 146, 147, 155, and 156)
- Additional monomer (claims 151-154)
- Form of the cosmetic composition (159 and 160)

Should Group I be elected, applicant is required to specify a single monomer structure with defined R', R₁, R₂, R₃, R₄, R₅, R₆, R₇, R₈, R₉, R₁₀ groups (a species for example is methyl, not alkyl), a single additional monomer, and a single form of the cosmetic composition.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species as set forth above. The following claims are generic for Group I: 77-109, 112, 115, 116, 118-120, 123-126, 130-134, 136-139, 142-145, 148-150, 157, 158, and 161-164. No species election is currently required for Groups II or III.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the cosmetic composition (Group I) and cosmetic process (Group III) are anticipated by Anton et al. as set forth in paragraph 2 above.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
